

Mobilising communities through NVR practises

The Keynote Speakers

Ziv Gilad, PhD, is an organisational psychologist specializing in police organisational development. He is currently in charge of training police officers at the Israeli Police Academy in Haim Omer's Constructive Struggle approach for non-violent conflict resolutions vis-a vis citizens. His keynote speech will be on his work with police officers using NVR and the concept of Constructive Struggle in his work with Muslim citizens within Israel.

Ivan Nulens, Belgian. Qualified social worker, trained in the field of remedial education and contextual family therapy. Ivan is a senior practitioner at De Wiekslag association in Belgium.

This is an organisation that functions with high risk youths and their families. He was trained in 2012 in Israel by Haim Omer and has introduced NVR to his and other organisations. He runs open parent groups using a unique model. His speech will be on using NVR to promote internet safety.

8 workshops will be repeated twice during the day

- NVR roadmaps for parents
- NVR in schools
- NVR Internet safety
- Safeguarding and NVR
- NVR with offenders
- NVR with young offenders
- Cultural myths and shame in NVR groups
- NVR and domestic violence

Date: Friday 23rd June 2017

Time: 9.30am registration, 10am start, finishing at 5pm

Venue: Resources for London, 356 Holloway Rd, London N7 6PA

Cost: £80 Tea and coffee provided. Lunch not provided

To book tickets go to:
www.eventbrite.co.uk

For further information email nonviolentresistanceuk@gmail.com or visit www.nonviolentresistance.org.uk/events