

Summary of NVR & NA work 2016 – Switzerland

Written by: Claudia Seefeldt

In Switzerland, the institut für systemische impulse and the expert network isi-netz24 continue to lead and disseminate NVR & NA, mainly in schools and social institutions. In the German speaking part of Switzerland NA has become an important reference for a value-based and relationship-oriented pedagogical approach. Many schools include NA in their long-term school development work and involve parents on their way.

Three basic NVR trainings with Idan Amiel, Uri Weinblatt and Claudia Seefeldt took place in Zurich, a parent coaching training is offered by the institut in cooperation with the university of applied science in Bern.

Many other courses are offered, e.g. NA and leadership specifically for principals or Uri Weinblatt's workshop "Regulating shame in families and in schools".

More than 300 people attended for the 16th time the annual conference "Stärke statt Macht" in November. This year Haim Omer was joined by Eia Asen, Uri Weinblatt, Roland Reichenbach, Natalie Knapp, Joachim Bauer, Martin Lemme, Bruno Körner, Susanne Quistorp and Regina Haller. Experts from different fields could use that opportunity to exchange their knowledge and experiences.

The NA network isi-netz24 hosted three open network meetings in 2016 giving opportunities to expand and strengthen the net and add new "knots" to the Swiss community.
